

This activity is for you to find out which colours you can find outside your home. How many colours can you find? Can you stick them down in order from lightest to darkest? Which object is the lightest? What about the darkest?