

What Is a Proper Noun?

Getting Started

What is a noun?

A noun is a naming word. Nouns are used to identify people, places, objects, animals or ideas. There are several different types of nouns; we most commonly use 'common nouns'.

So, what is a common noun?

Common nouns are the general names for people, places, objects or animals. For example:

Getting Started

Proper nouns are different in that they name specific places, objects or people. A proper noun should always start with a capital letter.

Sydney

Roald Dahl

London Eye

Months of the year, days of the week, some religious events and brand names are also considered to be proper nouns.

Dear mr. williams,

I am writing to you to complain about my recent visit to your supermarket, costsavers, on thursday, january 12, 2017. After a recent vacation in europe (where I visited portugal, spain and italy), I came to your store to purchase some ingredients to make a mediterranean meal like the one I had eaten near the colosseum.

Proper Noun Hunt Continued

While in your fruit and vegetable aisle, I accidentally tripped over a red onion and two of your shop assistants, whose name badges read daniel and julie, proceeded to laugh at me hysterically. They never offered me any help or assistance. I was appalled.

I raced outside, got into my car and went straight home empty-handed. I had to call my local branch of palace pizzas to order takeout. I will not be coming back in your shop until I get a full apology. If I don't receive a letter by wednesday march 1st, I am even considering writing to the whoopsville government or the president to express my disgust.

Yours sincerely,
mr. whoops
