

*“We can all dance when we find music that we
love”*

*What can you do that you
love?*

Draw a picture and write about what you love to do. Try to add more detail to your sentences including adjectives and extend your sentences using 'because' to explain why you love it.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for a child to draw a picture related to their writing.A series of seven horizontal black lines for writing, located below the drawing box.
