

ROUND OFF THE RHYME

What do you think the missing word is in these lines of poetry?

Remember, the word has to rhyme.

I have an old teddy up in the loft.
Its eyes are blue and its fur is _____.

I love my scooter. I love my bike.
Whizzing along is what I _____.

I have a puppet on a string.
Come see it dancing while I _____.

Is that a lion in the house next door?
I'm sure I heard the loudest _____.

My dog goes mad when it sees the moon.

It drinks with a straw and eats with a _____.

It pillow-fights with me on my bed

And plays the flute standing on its _____.
