

Aim

- I know which parts of my body I use to see, hear, taste, smell and feel.

Success Criteria

- I can name the senses.
- I know what my senses do.
- I know which body parts I use for each sense.
- I can name things I do with each of my senses.

The Five Senses

Senses are the things that happen in our body to tell us about the world around us. We have 5 senses. Who can tell me what they are?

The Five Senses

What are these children doing?

senses

The Five Senses

What is this girl doing?
Show me which part of her body she is using.

What sense is this?

The Five Senses

What kind of things do you look at?

What do you see?

The Five Senses

What is this girl doing?
Show me which part of her body she is using.
What sense is this?

The Five Senses

What kind of things do you smell?

The Five Senses

What is this boy doing?

Show me which part of his body he is using.

What sense is this?

The Five Senses

What kind of things do you taste?

The Five Senses

What is this girl doing?
Show me which part of her body she is using.
What sense is this?

The Five Senses

What kind of things do you hear?

The Five Senses

What is this boy doing?

Show me which part of his body he is using.

What sense is this?

The Five Senses

What kind of things do you feel?

Senses Activity

What is this body part?

What sense do you use it for?

I am looking at a painting.

Can you tell me
something you might do with your sense of sight?

I can see!

Using Different Senses

We are able to use all 5 senses at the same time!

There are lots of things we do that use more than one sense.

Which senses do we use for these activities?

Using Different Senses

In your pairs, think of something else that you do that uses more than one of your senses.

