

Terrific Traction Man you have to save us!
These petrifying pillows have cruelly captured us! It is a fact that they are evil and everyone knows across the land that they don't let anyone go! If you don't save us we think that they could hurt us and we desperately don't want that to happen so pretty please fly down on your jet powered boots! We don't want to get hurt. We don't want to be upset. We don't want to be captured!

A	Alliteration (words with the same sound at the start)
