

Athens and Sparta

Athens and Sparta were both Greek city states. They were very different.

Athens

Athens was ruled by a democracy and believed the city should be run fairly.

They believed in education but only for boys.

The Athenians wanted to expand their lands which led to many battles.

Women and girls didn't have the right to an education and couldn't participate in business. Wealthy girls could be educated at home.

Sparta

Sparta was ruled by two kings who made all of the decisions.

Their army was famous in Ancient Greece because it was so powerful.

Spartans were raised to be in the army. Boys would learn to train from a young age. It was very strict.

Sparta did not try to invade other cities or claim more land.

Women were not allowed to join the army but had to train and had to be fit and healthy.
