

A Greek Myth – Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

Use this sheet to help you plan and write your story.

Characters

Your story must have at least two characters, one the Hero/Heroine and the other a mythical creature.

Setting

Where is your story set? Is it in Athens or Sparta, or maybe one of the Greek Islands like Crete?

Beginning

This is where you set the scene and introduce your characters by telling us a bit about them.

Build Up

This is where you are building up to something big happening. In your story, it will be the Hero/Heroine realising that they are going to have to meet the mythical beast.

Problem

What goes wrong?

Resolution

How do you solve the problem?

Ending

How does your story end?

Theseus and the Minotaur

Here is how Theseus and the Minotaur follows the story mountain.

Beginning – We find out about the Kings, their battles and that King Minos has a pet Minotaur.

Build Up – The two kings make a deal. Theseus decides that he will go to Crete and save the children from being eaten by the Minotaur.

Problem – Princess Ariadne tells Theseus that he won't survive. Theseus doesn't know how he will save the children and not get eaten himself.

Resolution - Princess Ariadne offers to help Theseus, he follows her plan and he kills the Minotaur.

Ending – They go back home and leave Princess Ariadne in Naxos.
