Take a look at my example of paragraph one. This is for my version of the story. What grammatical features do you notice?

In an old, ramshackle house at the peak of a great mountain lived two brothers. Ivan, the older brother, was a lumberjack and went out into the deep snow every day to collect logs. At the end of each day, he would return home to his brother, Igor, who was a writer. The house was always very cold due to the thick and heavy snow that was constantly falling at the tip of the towering mountain.

Once you have read the example, have a go at writing your own version. This should just be section one of your planning sheet from the previous lesson.
