

Viking Collage Examples

Collages are made by sticking down different materials to create an image. The materials could come from indoors, or you could use natural resources from your garden. Take a look at these examples and see what inspires you!

Don't forget to take a photo of your work and upload it to Seesaw. I can't wait to see what you create!