

Year 5 Home Learning

Monday 25th January 2021

History

Can you find and label any important Viking places, or Viking places that are still around today on the map? You could also include some information about what the Vikings did there, or why the places were important using your own research.

