

1 Find and write down a phrase that means book a ticket.

.....

1 mark

2 How do we know that the journey of the Jacobite is popular?

.....
.....

2 marks

3 Find another word used in the text for train.

.....

1 mark

4 How does the writer describe the town of Fort William?

.....
.....

2 marks

5 The writer suggests that if you were in Fort William, you'd be sure to see a special feature in the landscape. What would it be?

.....
.....

2 marks

6 Where does the journey end?

.....
.....

2 marks

7 In the section, A Land of Extremes, there are three phrases that emphasise the beauty of the landscape. Write them here.

1) .....

2) .....

3) .....

2 marks

8 Describe the bridge known as the Glenfinnan Viaduct.

.....

.....

.....

2 marks

9 How do we know the writer is trying to make the trip sound appealing to people who like different holiday experiences?

.....

.....

.....

2 marks

10 Do you think Mrs H from Bristol has as much fun as her son? Give reasons for your answer.

.....

.....

.....

.....

3 marks

11 If a tourist, who was not a Harry Potter fan, booked a seat on the train, what do you think they might take photographs of?
Write down three things?

- 1) .....
- 2) .....
- 3) .....

3 marks

12 You don't have to be a friend of Harry Potter or wait for a letter to be delivered by an owl.
Why do you think the writer has put this near the beginning?

- .....
- .....
- .....

2 marks

13 Why do you think the writer has called the second section A Landscape of Extremes?

- .....
- .....
- .....
- .....
- .....

2 marks

14 Write down three examples of persuasive phrases the writer uses to describe the wildlife.

1) .....

2) .....

3) .....

2 marks

15 How does A Landscape of Extremes differ from the reviews?

.....
.....
.....
.....

2 marks

END OF TEST 5