

Information p 18 -19	True	False
The blood is a red liquid
The blood takes away waste
You need a microscope to see the particles within the blood.
Each human has the same amount of blood in the body.
The liquid in the blood is pale yellow.
White blood cells protect us from disease.
The diameter of white blood cells is 0.8 mm
Red blood cells have a lifespan of about a year.

P 18 lists three main functions of the blood. What are they?

---

---

---

Write the word heart in the middle of your page and brainstorm ten facts about it, after reading p 20 -21.

Read p 22-23 and draw a diagram showing how blood circulates around the body.